The Program Committee welcomes abstract submissions for the Poster Session at the DIA/FDA Biostatistics Industry and Regulator Forum, April 8-10 in North Bethesda, MD.

This Call for Posters is for researchers in all fields related to statistics in lifecycle management and regulatory review of pharmaceuticals, biologics, medical devices, and related healthcare products. Poster topics can be about innovative quantitative approaches to improve efficiency of drug development, creative study designs, or new technology. They can also be about statistical methods to address existing challenges, or approaches described in upcoming regulatory guidances. Posters about statisticians as leaders and collaborators in drug development are also encouraged.
