

Hot Topics and Featured Sessions at DIA's Global Labeling Conference

DIA's Global Labeling Conference is the premier forum for regulators and industry to update their knowledge of local and global labeling-related policies and to examine the impact of changes on regulatory compliance.

- Challenges and priorities in 2020 and beyond for labeling organizations
- Current landscape of eLabeling initiatives across regions including EU, Japan, Canada, and Singapore
- Impact of Brexit on labeling initiatives

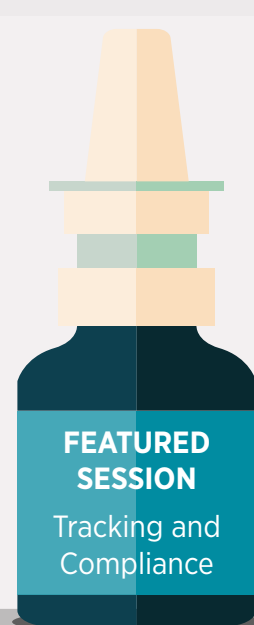

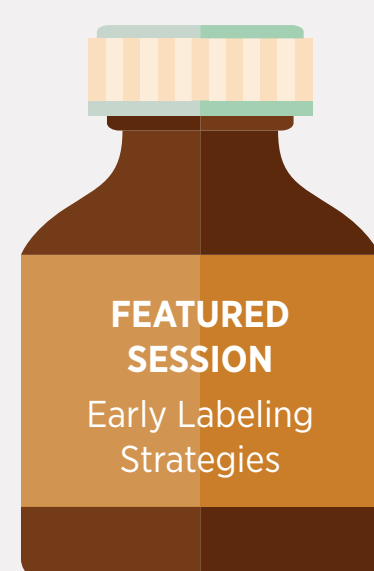

Digital labeling for future digital health

Global labeling regulatory and policy updates including developments from regions around the world

- Japan's new labeling regulations, and the Pharmaceuticals and Medical Devices Agency (PMDA) initiatives in Asia
- Labeling strategies for compliance across Latin America

Benefits of early labeling strategies including the best areas of the label to leverage for market differentiation

End-to-end tracking, contemporary approaches to governance, and future improvements for compliance

- Market differentiation in labeling
- Labeling created from patient focus groups
- Real world data and evidence

Drug-device combination labeling

REGISTER TODAY!